Season Preview

In a silver anniversary coaching season for one of the nation's longest-tenured and most successful women's basketball coaches, one of the principal characteristics of Chris Weller's 25th team will be youth.

Again.

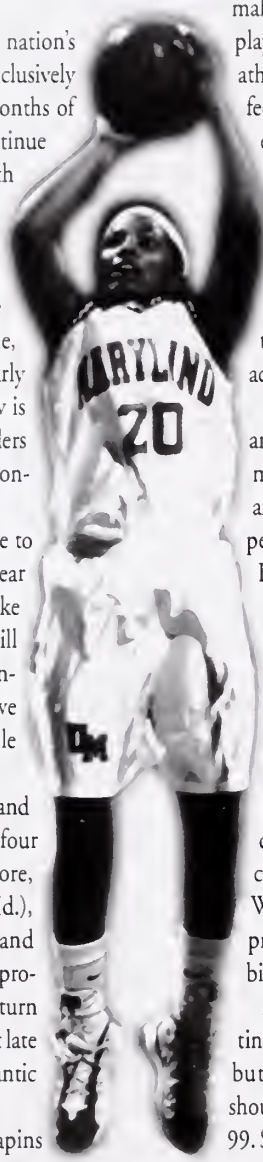
A year after fielding one of the nation's youngest squads and relying almost exclusively on five freshmen for the first two months of the season, Maryland promises to continue its youth movement — this time with a host of sophomores, four steady seniors and a new class of freshmen.

What is new?

Terp fans aren't likely to see five freshmen on the floor at any given time, as was commonplace during the early phases of 1998-99. What also is new is the presence of at least three ballhandlers to help Maryland dictate tempo and control its offensive possessions.

"We'll certainly have more people to handle the ball this year," said 25th-year head coach Chris Weller. "I really like our young players and I think they will make us more exciting. We should control tempo a little better, and overall we should become a much more mobile team."

Freshmen will play again in 2000, and it is Weller's hope that the Terrapins' four newcomers — Vicki Brick (Baltimore, Md.), Terri Daniels (Ellicott City, Md.), Brie Jackson (Silver Spring, Md.) and Renneika Razor (New York, N.Y.) — provide the mobility and focus to help turn the team's fortunes from improvement late last season, to contention in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2000.



Marché Strickland

Four starters return for the Terrapins who increased the team's scoring average nearly 20 points from January to March in 1999. Sophomore forward Deedee Warley (Fort Washington, Md.) opens her second college campaign after leading Maryland with a 13.4-point average last year and scoring in double figures in 19 games as a freshman. Warley joins veteran center Branka Bogunovic (Zemun, Serbia) among primary scoring threats. Bogunovic begins a senior season hopeful of continuing an inside dominance that surfaced in her game as a junior. Tiffany Brown (Clinton, Md.) and Marché Strickland (Kingston, Mass.) return at the point and off-guard positions.

Mobility should be a key difference for the Terrapins in 2000 as the point guard role takes a new shape and last year's freshmen move into more natural roles.

"Vicki, Renneika and Terri really have capability of making us a more mobile team. Our perimeter play will improve and we'll be a much more athletic team," said Weller. "Marché is the perfect example of one of last year's freshmen that can play her normal position now. All of last season, we kept asking her to start or back up the point and she hadn't ever played point guard in high school. She gained a ton of experience, but we took her out of her natural position. We'll look for Marché to score points this year and assume a more active role without the ball."

Ballhandling was a crutch last season, plain and simple. Returning starter Tiffany Brown missed the season's first nine games, and even after her return she was forced into 40-minute per game action. In 2000, however, with Brown as the incumbent starter, Brick is expected to challenge not just for playing time but perhaps even a more significant role. The two-time Baltimore-area player of the year comes to Maryland as an intense, aggressive student of the game who could ignite both facets of Weller's keys for improved play — mobility and focus.

Maryland continues to be young, but its "new" youth should fill gaps that were evident in 1998-99. Seniors starters Brown and Bogunovic, with support from seniors Cara Ferris (Pensacola, Fla.) and Antonieta Gabriel (Virginia Beach, Va.) should provide maturity and leadership in 2000.

"Last year, I thought we had a few players step up their play when we were struggling," said Weller, who hopes for a return to the ACC's upper echelon and a shot at her 16th national tournament appearance. "This year, we need to focus our efforts even more and step up to another level as a team. We'll be better than last year, without question. The key to how much better we become will be how the players committ to elevating their games together."

Guard

The Terps hope to spread their scoring capabilities this season and involve their perimeter players in a more expansive role, both offensively and defensively. Guard play should improve dramatically in 1999-2000 as Tiffany Brown embarks on her senior year and freshmen Brick, Daniels and Razor bring greater mobility and intensity. Offensively, Maryland's guards should be much more dynamic. Defensively, the Terps' perimeter is expected to become more active and reflect the tenacity that has always characterized Weller teams.

3	Tiffany Brown	5-6	Sr.	Clinton, Md.
10	Terri Daniels	5-11	Fr.	Ellicott City, Md.
12	Vicki Brick	5-7	Fr.	Timonium, Md.
20	Marché Strickland	5-9	So.	Kingston, Mass.
21	Renneika Razor	5-8	Fr.	New York, N.Y.

Moreover, by virtue of the fact that the Terps are now deeper at the guard positions, substitution patterns should increase stamina and pace.

Brown, a 5-6 dynamo who would have ranked among NCAA assists leaders last season had she met minimum game standards, averaged 6.9 assists and 6.8 points. She also averaged more than 38 minutes per game after her return to the lineup in late December.

After her return, though, she was the team's only true ballhandler. Aiding Brown in 2000 and expected to push her for playing time is Brick, a 5-7 newcomer whose crafty play should receive considerable attention. The consummate playmaker, Brick's arrival on campus has been highly anticipated.

"I like the way that Vicki Brick plays the game," said Weller. "I like the way that she thinks on the court. I like the way she attacks the game, the way she attacks her opponent. She has an intensity, a fire. I really look forward to seeing that become a part of our team."

Tiffany Brown

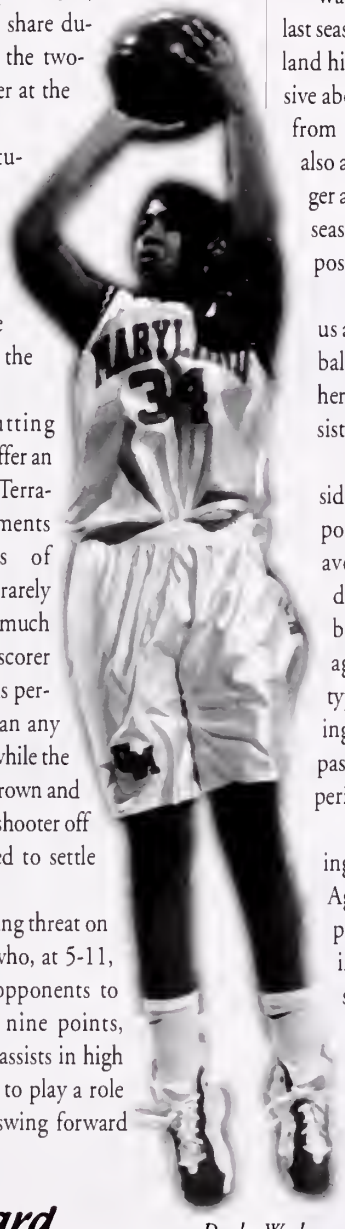
Brick guided her McDonogh High School team to a 26-0 record as a senior and a ranking among the USA Today Top 25. She was twice named the Baltimore Sun Player of the Year, and averaged 20 points, five steals and four assists as a senior.

What Weller also looks forward to is the addition of Razor, a Manhattan product whose athleticism on the perimeter gives the Terrapins a bonafide slasher and leaper. At 5-8, Razor is expected both to share duties with Strickland at the two-guard, and play with her at the opposite wing.

"We are really fortunate to have Renneika. She's an athlete. She has the capability of elevating our level of play immediately. We need someone to attack the basket like she can."

Where Razor's cutting ability and athleticism offer an enhanced trait for the Terrapin lineup, it complements the shooting skills of Strickland which were rarely untracked last season. A much ballyhooed shooter and scorer as a prep, Strickland was perhaps impacted more than any other player last season while the Terps labored without Brown and Kelley Gibson. A quick shooter off the pass, she is expected to settle into her role in 2000.

An additional shooting threat on the outside is Daniels who, at 5-11, is a bigger guard for opponents to defend. She averaged nine points, eight rebounds and six assists in high school, and is expected to play a role beside Strickland and swing forward Cara Ferris.



Deedee Warley

Forward

Where the Terps' newcomers of 1999 made their greatest impact was at the forward position.

Three '99 newcomers — Cara Ferris, Ije Agba (Rockville, Md.) and Deedee Warley — join third-year senior Antonieta Gabriel as returners. And added to the lineup is freshman Brie Jackson.

14	Brie Jackson	5-11	Fr.	Silver Spring, Md.
30	Ije Agba	6-0	So.	Rockville, Md.
32	Antonieta Gabriel	6-0	Sr.	Virginia Beach, Va.
33	Cara Ferris	6-1	Sr.	Pensacola, Fla.
34	Deedee Warley	6-2	So.	Ft. Washington, Md.
42	Rosita Melbourne	6-3	So.	Washington, D.C.

Warley was easily the Terps' biggest impact player last season, becoming just the fourth freshman in Maryland history to lead the team in scoring. Most impressive about her scoring, though, was her ability to score from 10-15 feet and play the high post. She also averaged 5.7 rebounds, and will be stronger and more experienced for her sophomore season. Warley can play both a high or low post position.

"We knew that Deedee could score for us at this level. She has a knack for taking the ball straight to the basket. Now, we need for her to continue improving and become a consistent, quality defender."

Ferris is a capable mid-range-to-outside shooter and defender who averaged four points and 20.9 minutes last season. She averaged 6.0 points and 3.4 rebounds down the stretch, and scored a career-best 12 points in the ACC Tournament against Wake Forest. She is the prototypical swing forward who has rebounding skills and the size to play inside, and passing and shooting prowess from the perimeter.

Another player who saw increasing minutes late in her first season was Agba. A rugged, blue-collar type of player, Agba received consistent playing time late in the 1999 regular season, spelling Maryland post players and providing a lift under the boards. Agba and Jackson both are key defensive contributors who can rebound and score inside the paint.

One of Weller's most versatile players is Gabriel, a returning senior who, in separate games last season, recorded career highs of 13 rebounds and 10 assists. Like Ferris, she plays a swing position and is one of Maryland's most aggressive defenders. She also serves as a valuable team leader both on and off the hardwood.

Center

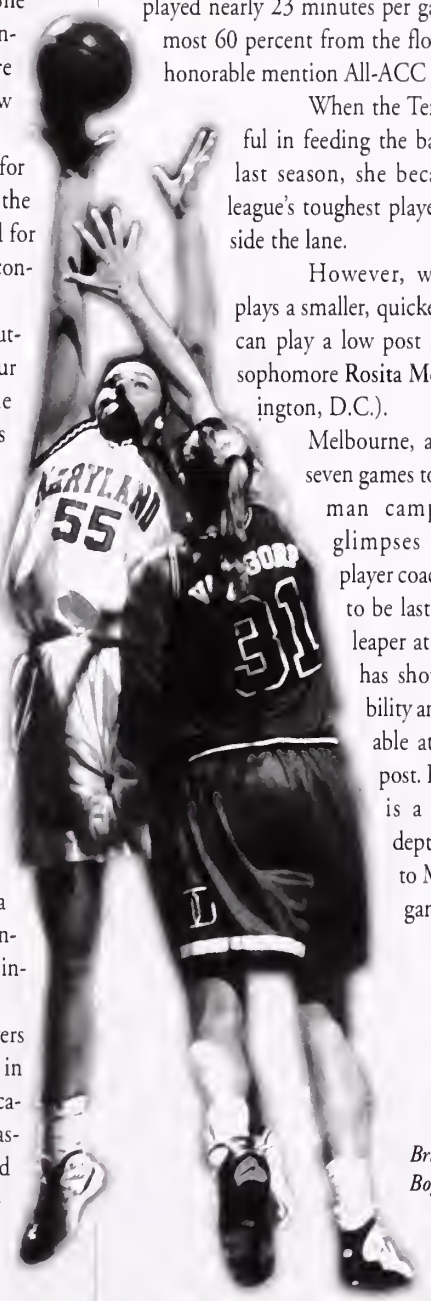
In the post, Maryland turns to 6-8 senior Branka Bogunovic who returns for her fourth season in a Terrapin uniform. Bogonovic has displayed remarkable improvement since her freshman season in which she appeared in just eight games. She started in 23 games as a sophomore while averaging 6.9 points, 4.3 boards and 17 minutes. Last season, she emerged as one of the ACC's top talents, averaging 11.7 rebounds and leading the team with 6.9 rebounds. She played nearly 23 minutes per game and shot almost 60 percent from the floor while earning honorable mention All-ACC accolades.

42	Rosita Melbourne	6-3	So.	Washington, D.C.
55	Branka Bogunovic	6-8	Sr.	Zemun, Serbia

When the Terps were successful in feeding the ball to Bogunovic last season, she became one of the league's toughest players to defend inside the lane.

However, when Maryland plays a smaller, quicker lineup, Warley can play a low post as well as fellow sophomore Rosita Melbourne (Washington, D.C.).

Melbourne, a starter through seven games to begin her freshman campaign, showed glimpses of the type of player coaches expected her to be last season. A quick leaper at 6-3, Melbourne has shot-blocking capability and possesses valuable athleticism in the post. Her development is a key to adding depth and quickness to Maryland's inside game.



Branka Bogunovic

Preseason Notebook

Silver anniversary

Maryland women's basketball coach Chris Weller embarks on her 25th season with the Terps in 1999-2000. A 1966 Maryland graduate, Weller was a four-year varsity letterwinner in basketball and also participated on the swimming and lacrosse squads. She returned to Maryland for her master's degree in 1973 and became an assistant coach for two seasons before the Weller dynasty began in 1975 when she was elevated to head coach.

Under Weller, Maryland has participated in three Final Fours, and played for the national title in 1978. The Terps have made 15 national tournament appearances and have won an unprecedented eight ACC championships. As recent as 1992, Weller and the Terrapins were the nation's top-ranked team.

Weller boasts 453 wins in her career, and is one of just seven coaches nationally to have coached as many years at the same school.

Silver and 500

Symbolizing the status and longtime prominence of the Maryland women's basketball program, Weller celebrates her own Silver Anniversary in the same season that Maryland should no doubt reach its milestone 500th victory of all-time. The Lady Terrapins embark on their 29th varsity season just three wins shy of the half-century mark. The Terps will join Virginia and NC State as the only ACC programs in history to reach the 500-win plateau.

Brown turns senior

Tiffany Brown enters her final campaign in Terrapin red. She begins her final season already as the school's most prolific three-point shooter ever, and also is 12th all-time in assists. Last season, were it not for missing the team's first nine games, Brown would have led the ACC and finished ninth in the nation with 6.9 assists per game. Her total also would have qualified for fifth-best in ACC history.

Branka charts

Like Brown, 6-8 center Branka Bogunovic enters her final season with the Terps. Bogunovic shot an impressive 59 percent from the floor last year to rank among ACC leaders and establish the fifth-best mark in Terrapin history. She is also likely to climb into Maryland's career rebounding leaders at some point this season.

Other seniors

Aside from Bogunovic and Brown, Maryland welcomes two other seniors into their final seasons — forwards Cara Ferris and Antonieta Gabriel. Ferris transferred to Maryland last season and averaged just over 20 minutes a game. She scored a career-best 12 points in last year's ACC Tournament game vs. Wake Forest. Gabriel, a transfer to the Terps three years ago, begins her final year after averaging 18 minutes a game in 1998-99. She posted career-highs of 13 rebounds and 10 assists, in separate games last season.

Freshman starts

Last season's team was the youngest in Maryland history, with five freshman and only one senior, Kelley Gibson. Add to that the fact that Gibson and Brown missed the first nine games of the year, last season's freshman class was thrown to the fire and had no point guard. Those freshmen, now sophomores, took their lumps and combined for 57 starts among them — more than any previous freshman class.

Deedee Warley was a runner-up for the ACC Rookie of the Year and finished with 22 starts and the Terps' scoring title with 13.4 points per game. Marché Strickland became just the second freshman ever to start the entire season at Maryland. She was also the only player on the team to start every game, and led all ACC freshmen in minutes played.

Freshmen starts, part II

This season, Maryland will be young again. And starting youngsters might be the norm again, though not just by necessity. As many as three freshmen — Vicki Brick, Terri Daniels and Renneika Razor — could challenge for starting positions.

Eight straight home games

Fans can see the Terps early and often this season. Following a pair of exhibition contests on Nov. 6 and 12, Maryland plays eight straight home games to tip off the year. The Terps host Loyola College on the night of Nov. 20 and Penn State on Nov. 23. Maryland entertains West Virginia, UNC Charlotte and Coppin State as part of the Terrapin Classic, Thanksgiving weekend, on Nov. 27-28.

First-time opponents

Tournaments and non-conference games present the Terps with a host of first-time women's basketball opponents. New to the Maryland schedule this season, in chronological order, are: UNC Charlotte, Fairleigh Dickinson, Robert Morris, SMU, Brown and St. Bonaventure.

Local Terps

Maryland's bumper crop of freshmen and sophomores the last two seasons include six local players between the Annapolis, Baltimore and D.C. areas. Returning sophomores include Ije Agba (Rockville), Rosita Melbourne (Washington, D.C.) and Deedee Warley (Fort Washington, Md.). Incoming local freshmen are Vicki Brick (Timonium, Md.), Terri Daniels (Ellicott City, Md.) and Brie Jackson (Silver Spring, Md.).

Averaging nearly 20 wins per season and celebrating a silver anniversary this season with her 25th year as head coach of her alma mater, there are not many, if any, college basketball experiences that Chris Weller has missed. Her achievements have been remarkable and her contributions to the growth of collegiate women's basketball are documented with the best known coaches in the game. She embarks on her 25th Terrapin season boasting, and hoping to build upon, the following list of notables:

• Weller is one of a very small handful of college coaches, men's or women's, to coach 25 seasons at the same institution.

• Weller became only the fifth NCAA Division I coach to earn at least 400 victories at a single institution.

• The Terrapins have been ranked in the Top 10 nationally nine times and the Top 25 on 14 occasions.

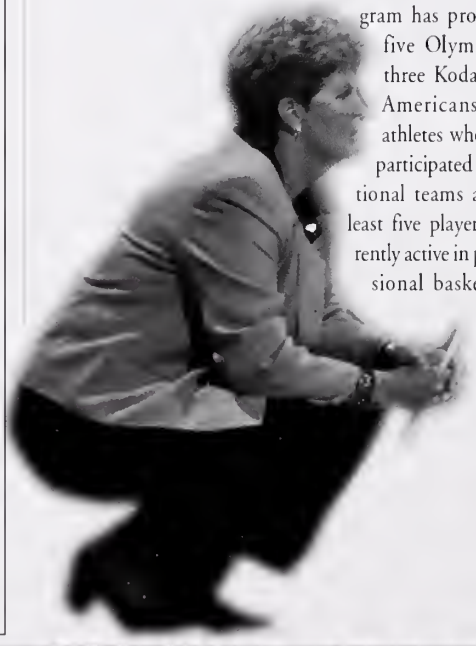
• Maryland earned a No. 1 ranking in the nation during much of the 1992 campaign.

• She has guided the Terps to 10 Sweet 16 appearances.

• Weller-guided teams have advanced to national championship tournaments in 15 of the last 21 seasons.

• Every class of athletes that Weller has brought to Maryland has reached the NCAA or AIAW national tournament, and all but four classes since 1975 have participated in at least one Sweet Sixteen. All but five have advanced to the Elite Eight.

In addition to Weller's accomplishments, her players have experienced personal success as well. The Terrapin program has produced five Olympians, three Kodak All-Americans, 28 athletes who have participated on national teams and at least five players currently active in professional basketball.



But Terrapin success goes far beyond the basketball court: it extends into the classroom as well. Since 1980, all but one athlete who finished her eligibility earned a diploma. This is a tribute to Weller's high expectations for her student-athletes both on and off the court.

Taking over the program in 1975 from Dottie McKnight, success came quickly for Chris Weller. The Terps produced a 20-win season her first year and advanced to the EAIAW Regional Tournament. The following season she coached the Terps to a final season ranking of 13th, the first of eight consecutive seasons the Terps finished ranked in the Top 20. In 1978 the Terps recorded a 27-4 record, won the first-ever Atlantic Coast Conference championship and advanced to the AIAW Final Four in Los Angeles, Calif. Maryland went on to win four more conference championships in the following five years along with its second trip to the Final Four in 1982. From 1976 to 1982, the Terps recorded five 20-win seasons and compiled a 151-46 mark.

Maryland advanced to the Sweet 16 both in 1983 and 1984 and the Elite Eight in 1988. The 1989 squad won a school record 29 games that included a 21-game win streak, advanced to the Terps' third Final Four appearance and finished fifth in the Associated Press poll. Maryland averaged a school-record 85.3 points per game in 1989, outscoring its opponents by an average of 19 points per game. Weller was named the ACC and American Sports Foundation's Coach of the Year in 1989.

Ranked 15th in the 1992 preseason poll, the Terps reached the No. 1 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls for the first time in school history. On January 21, with a record of 15-1, the Terps garnered the top spot and stayed No. 1 through February 11. During that stretch, the largest crowd to ever witness a regular season ACC game took place when the No. 1 Terrapins met the second-ranked Virginia Cavaliers before a sellout crowd of 14,500 at Cole Field House. Maryland finished the season with a 25-6 mark and a final ranking of No. 8. Weller was honored by the press and coaching fraternity for her efforts in 1992. She was recognized as the Naismith National Coach of the Year, the Basketball Writer's Association of America Coach of the Year, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year.

Weller's basketball knowledge and coaching expertise has extended beyond the confines of Cole Field House. She was an assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup Team in 1985 and the head coach of the U.S. Select Team in 1986, 1992 and 1994. Weller was also a chairperson of the WBCA Legislative Committee and has served on the Kodak All-America and U.S. Olympic committees.

A 1966 Maryland graduate, Weller was a four-year varsity letterwinner in basketball and also participated on the swimming and lacrosse squads. Following graduation, she taught and coached at John F. Kennedy High School in nearby Silver Spring, Md.

A popular speaker and teacher of the game, Weller returned to Maryland for her master's degree in 1973 and became an assistant for two seasons under Dottie McKnight. In 1975, the Weller dynasty began as she was elevated to head coach.

Family: Married in August 1999 to Jerome Scott, a former basketball player at the University of Miami.
High School: South Lakes (Reston, Va.)
College Education: Maryland, '90
College Playing Experience: Four-year letterwinner at Maryland (1986-90); honorable mention All-American in 1990.

Christy Winters Scott begins her third year on Coach Weller's staff and returns to College Park with a wealth of knowledge and experience as both a player and coach. Her background as a former Terrapin player and a keen loyalty to the Washington area have helped secure her postition as a popular figure in the Maryland program for fans and players, alike.

She is an active local recruiter as well as the organizer of the Terps' scouting program. She works specifically with Maryland's post players.

Winters Scott was a four-year letterwinner with the Terrapins from 1986 to 1990. In 1989, she helped Maryland win its eighth Atlantic Coast Conference championship and reach its third Final Four. As a senior, Winters was a first team All-Atlantic Coast Conference and Kodak All-East Region selection as she led the Terps in scoring with 533 points (17.8 ppg).

Winters is one of only two players to score more than 700 field goals (703) at Maryland. Winters also ranks in the all-time top 10 at Maryland in games started (4th with 100), blocked shots (5th with 91) and field goal percentage (6th with .537).

Before returning to her alma mater, Winters Scott spent a total of four seasons as an assistant coach at George Mason working with post players and handling the recruiting efforts for the Patriots. She also coached at Mason for the 1992-93 season. From 1991 to 1992 she played professionally for Pamela Sud in Pistoia, Italy, and in 1993 and 1994 she played and coached professionally for City Fribourg in Switzerland. 1998-99 Season Review

The Terps captured their third consecutive Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29.

A Look Back At 1998-99

Just one senior is gone, and five first-year players return when the Maryland women's basketball Terrapins take to the hardwood for the 25th consecutive season under head coach Chris Weller.

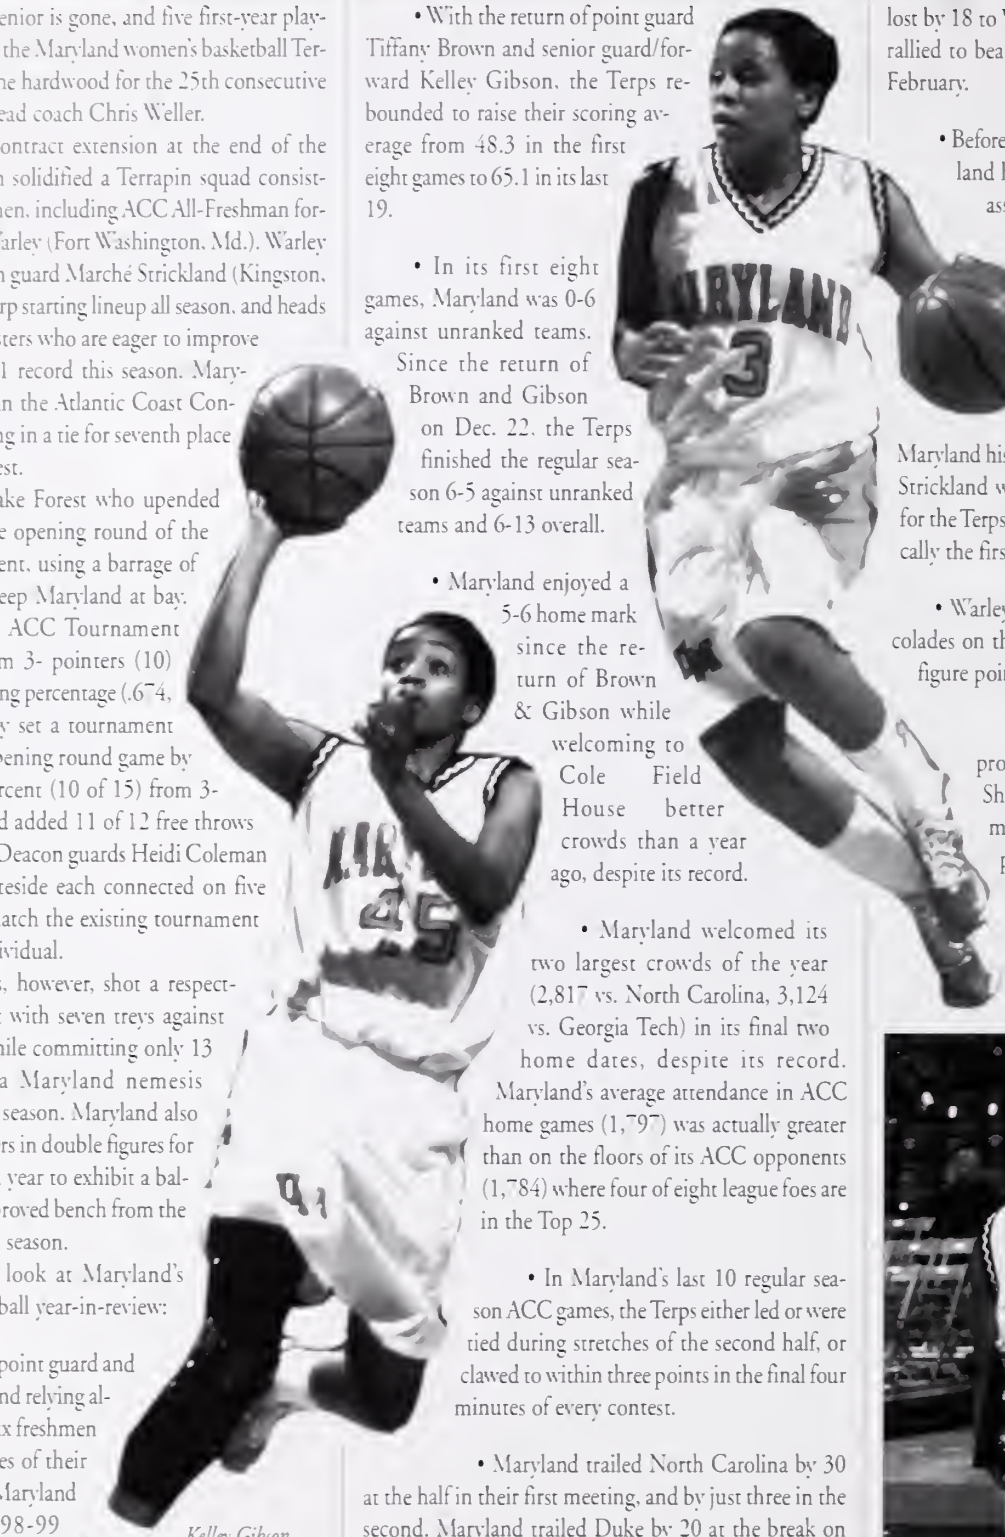
Weller's contract extension at the end of the 1998-99 season solidified a Terrapin squad consisting of six freshmen, including ACC All-Freshman forward Deedee Warley (Fort Washington, Md.). Warley joined freshman guard Marché Strickland (Kingston, Mass.) in the Terp starting lineup all season, and heads a cast of youngsters who are eager to improve upon their 6-21 record this season. Maryland was 3-13 in the Atlantic Coast Conference, finishing in a tie for seventh place with Wake Forest.

It was Wake Forest who upended the Terps in the opening round of the ACC Tournament, using a barrage of 3-pointers to keep Maryland at bay. The Deacs set ACC Tournament records for team 3- pointers (10) and team shooting percentage (.674, 31 of 46). They set a tournament record for an opening round game by shooting 67 percent (10 of 15) from 3-point range, and added 11 of 12 free throws for 92 percent. Deacon guards Heidi Coleman and Jenae Whiteside each connected on five 3-pointers to match the existing tournament mark by an individual.

The Terps, however, shot a respectable 43 percent with seven treys against the Deacons while committing only 13 turnovers — a Maryland nemesis throughout the season. Maryland also placed five scorers in double figures for the first time all year to exhibit a balance and an improved bench from the beginning of its season.

Here is a look at Maryland's women's basketball year-in-review:

• Minus a point guard and its only senior, and relying almost solely on six freshmen in the first games of their college careers, Maryland began the 1998-99 campaign 0-8 to mostly unranked, local competition.



Kelley Gibson

• With the return of point guard Tiffany Brown and senior guard/forward Kelley Gibson, the Terps rebounded to raise their scoring average from 48.3 in the first eight games to 65.1 in its last 19.

• In its first eight games, Maryland was 0-6 against unranked teams. Since the return of Brown and Gibson on Dec. 22, the Terps finished the regular season 6-5 against unranked teams and 6-13 overall.

• Maryland enjoyed a 5-6 home mark since the return of Brown & Gibson while welcoming to Cole Field House better crowds than a year ago, despite its record.

• Maryland welcomed its two largest crowds of the year (2,817 vs. North Carolina, 3,124 vs. Georgia Tech) in its final two home dates, despite its record. Maryland's average attendance in ACC home games (1,797) was actually greater than on the floors of its ACC opponents (1,784) where four of eight league foes are in the Top 25.

• In Maryland's last 10 regular season ACC games, the Terps either led or were tied during stretches of the second half, or clawed to within three points in the final four minutes of every contest.

• Maryland trailed North Carolina by 30 at the half in their first meeting, and by just three in the second. Maryland trailed Duke by 20 at the break on Jan. 2, but a month later in Durham, were tied at the half. After losing by 41 to Clemson in December, Maryland watched the Tigers escape from only a five-point lead with 3:03 to play. Virginia bested the Terps by just six in Charlottesville, and clung to only a three-point lead with 3:13 remaining in College Park. The Terps lost by 18 to Wake Forest at home in December, but rallied to beat the Deacs by a deuce on the road in February.

• Before the return of Brown and Gibson, Maryland had very nearly two turnovers for every assist. Since their return, the Terps commit just 1.2 turnovers for every assist.

• Maryland's freshman still have been vital to the Terps' late-season success as Deedee Warley became just the fourth freshman in Maryland history to lead the team in scoring. Marché Strickland was the only player to start every game for the Terps during the season. Ginji Perry was typically the first or second player off the bench.

• Warley earned ACC Rookie of the Week accolades on three occasions while recording double-figure points in 18 games.

• Bogunovic continued to show progress during her third college season. She posted eight double-double performances through the regular season while playing in every game, starting 21 and averaging 11.7 points, 7.1 boards and 23.2 minutes.

Tiffany Brown

Deedee Warley was named the MVP of the Terrapin Classic.

Game 1 – UNC Greensboro 63, Maryland 45

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Katie Del Campo and Brianne Dodgen each scored 13 points and combined to shoot 10 of 13 from the field to help lead defending Southern Conference champion UNC Greensboro to a 63-45 non-conference women's basketball win over Maryland.

In what was the season-opening game for both teams, UNCG (1-0) shot 53 percent to just 35 percent for Maryland (0-1), and took advantage of 29 Terrapin turnovers.

The Spartans took a lead midway through the opening half, and led by as many as 12, 29-17, with 1:57 left in the period. The Terps pulled within 35-27 early in the second half before a 9-0 spurt put UNCG in command, 44-27, with 10:34 to play. Samika Foster scored seven of her 11 points during the run and Maryland never got closer than 13 points the rest of the way.

A young Terrapin lineup consisting of as many as four and five freshmen on the floor at a time, got eight points apiece from freshmen Marché Strickland and Ije Agba, and junior college transfer Cara Ferris. Freshman Deedee Warley's seven rebounds helped Maryland to a 35-26 advantage on the boards.

Game 2 – Loyola (Md.) 50, Maryland 43

BALTIMORE, Md. - A balanced attack and solid defense down the stretch paced Loyola (Md.) to a 50-43 win over Maryland in the Greyhounds season-opener.

Loyola (1-0) jumped to a quick 14-6 lead with 14:19 remaining in the half, but Maryland went on a 19-9 run over the final 10 minutes of the first half to knot the score at 27-27 going into the locker room.

The Greyhounds ran out to a five-point lead to open the second half, but the Terrapins (0-2) went on an 8-3 run, keyed by freshmen Deedee Warley and Rosita Melbourne who scored tying and go-ahead baskets, to take the lead at 38-36. Loyola answered with an 8-2 run of its own to take a 44-40 lead on the strength of three steals by Shannon Cohen. Cohen finished the game with a game-high seven steals and Loyola never trailed again as Maryland could only come as close as 46-43 with 1:19 to play.

Neither team shot particularly well, combining to shoot just 34.5 percent from the floor, and 57.5 percent from the free-throw line.

Jina Mosley and Corey Hewitt paced Loyola with 11 and 10 points, respectively, while Cohen and Laura Slater each added seven off the bench. Maryland was led by Marché Strickland who netted 11 points and Warley who contributed 10. Melbourne had nine points and a game-high seven rebounds.

Game 3 – Howard 65, Maryland 47

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Courtney Kirk scored 15 points and Howard University outscored Maryland 27-5 during the final 13 minutes as the host Lady Bison notched their first victory against the Terrapins in history. Howard's 65-47 win was its first in 24 tries against its crosstown rivals, in a series which dates to 1976.

Maryland (0-3) saw a four-point lead with 13:17 to play, 42-38, simply evaporate as it suffered through an eight-minute scoring drought and numerous turnovers. The Terrapins committed 19 second half turnovers, 32 in all, and watched Howard (1-2) score 13 unanswered points to take a 51-42 lead with 5:21 remaining.

Howard took its final lead with 9:50 to play when Channel Washington's short jumper staked the Lady Bison to a 43-42 lead before a crowd of 1,200. The Terps' drought continued as Howard raised its lead to nine before Branka Bogunovic ended the skid with a layup at the 4:49 mark. Maryland scored just one field goal the rest of the way on a driving layup by Cara Ferris.

The disastrous collapse overshadowed an otherwise impressive performance by Bogonovic who registered career highs of 21 points and 17 rebounds. She matched her previous career best, 17 points at Clemson last January, on a late first half basket to put Maryland ahead, 30-29, at intermission.

Three Maryland players had double figure rebounding efforts to accent a dominant Terrapin front line. Bogunovic led the way with Ferris adding 13 rebounds and freshman Rosita Melbourne 12. Rebounds and plentiful opportunities were wasted by turnovers, however, as Maryland lost its third straight.

Game 4 – Hampton 76, Maryland 57

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Freshman Bridgit Phillips' career high 31 points powered Hampton University to a 76-57 win over Maryland Tuesday night in non-conference women's basketball action at First National Bank of Maryland Court at Cole Field House.

Maryland (0-4) cut Hampton's lead to 10 points on three separate occasions but the Lady Pirates' defense, and Phillips' six 3-pointers were too much for the Terrapins. Hampton (2-1) trailed 14-8 early in the first half, but Phillips reeled off 11 straight points to spark a 29-9 run to give HU a 37-23 lead at the break.

The Terps shot a season best 48 percent from the floor and received a career high 22 points on 9 of 18 shooting from freshman Marché Strickland. Fellow freshman Rosita Melbourne shot 6 of 7 from the floor to add 14 points in her first college start. Antonieta Gabriel paced Maryland with 10 rebounds and seven assists.

Hampton was playing its first game in two weeks, after a game at Texas Tech last week was canceled when Lady Pirate coaches were falsely accused in a mistaken arrest in Lubbock, Texas.

Game 5 – Western Michigan 64, Maryland 55

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Seeking its first victory in five games, Maryland succumbed to Western Michigan's quick-striking, 13-0 second half run, and nine 3-pointers, as the Broncos overcame a 10-point deficit to down the Terps 64-55 in non-conference women's basketball action on Wednesday.

Maryland, which got a career-high 32 points from 6-foot-8 center Branka Bogunovic, led by 10 on a Bogunovic layup with 10:27 to play. The Broncos, however, reeled off 13 unanswered points in the next three minutes. Shelsea Erving scored six of her team high 21 points on a pair of 3-pointers, and Brianne Gallert scored five during the run as Maryland (0-5) found itself trailing, 45-42, with 7:27 to play.

Kelly DeLong netted WMU's final 3-pointer with 3:58 remaining to stake the Broncos (4-1) to a seven-point advantage, 56-49. Freshman Marché Strickland scored on a driving jumper, and Bogunovic scored her final basket at the 1:47 mark to cut the lead to three, but Maryland never got closer.

Bogunovic shot 16 of 22 from the floor, and added 12 rebounds for the Terrapins as Maryland outrebounded its opponent for the fifth straight game. Her 32-point effort was the highest scoring production by a Maryland player since Dafne Lee's 39 points at Wake Forest on Feb. 16, 1990 tied the school record. It matched the seventh-best scoring effort in Maryland history.

The Terps shot 59 percent from the floor during the second half, and 48 percent for the game – compared to just 33 percent by the Broncos. WMU hit nine 3-pointers compared to Maryland's zero, and used 21 Terp turnovers to create 71 field goal attempts and record its fourth straight victory.

DeLong added 12 points for the Broncos and Gallert scored 10. Deedee Warley pitched in 10 points for Maryland while Antonieta Gabriel contributed nine rebounds and 10 assists.

Game 7 – (20) Penn State 79, Maryland 44

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. – No. 20 Penn State got 17 points from Lisa Shepherd and 12 from Andrea Garner to help the Lady Lions topple Maryland, 79-44, at the Bryce Jordan Center in non-conference women's basketball action.

Maryland (0-7) trailed by just 11, 31-20, at the intermission and cut the deficit to nine points at the 15:31 mark of the second half, but all thoughts of an upset were washed away when Penn State (6-1) scored the next eight points and extended the lead to 17. After trading baskets for the next few minutes, the Lady Lions closed the game with a 27-10 run. All 11 Lady Lions on the roster scored.

"Penn State is a good team," said head coach Chris Weller. "I was a little disappointed in our composure. They hit a lot of threes that we should have contested."

Shepherd and guard Shawnta Vanzant each scored three 3-pointers as the Lady Lions outdistanced themselves from the Terrapins in the second half. Vanzant and sophomore Maren Walseth each had 11 to round out the Lady Lions in double figures. Penn State scored seven 3-point buckets compared to zero for Maryland.

The Lady Lions had a season-high 23 steals and forced 32 Maryland turnovers. PSU out-rebounded the Terps by a 51-30 margin, and took almost twice as many shots from the field, 80-46, to outweigh the Terps' 45.7 percent shooting.

Leading the way for the Terrapins were Deedee Warley with a career-high 18 points and Branka Bogunovic with her third double-double on the year with 12 points and a game-high 11 rebounds.

Game 8 – Wake Forest 65, Maryland 47

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Olivia Dardy had 17 points and 15 rebounds Sunday afternoon to lift Wake Forest to a 65-47 Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball victory over Maryland. The win snapped a 17-game ACC losing streak for the Demon Deacons as Wake Forest won its first league game since Feb. 23, 1997.

Dardy shot 7 of 11 from the floor and netted 11 points in the first half while Wake Forest (4-4, 1-1 ACC) commanded a 31-22 lead at the intermission.

Maryland (0-8, 0-2) scored the first seven points of the second half to cut the lead to two, but the Demon Deacons answered with a 15-5 spurt to lead by 12, 46-34, with 9:23 remaining. Marché Strickland led the Terrapins with 18 points and cut the margin to 10 with a short jumper at the nine-minute mark, and later to nine, 51-42, with a pair of free throws with 5:28 to play, but Maryland never got closer.

Wake Forest shot 48 percent and took advantage of a 48-37 rebounding advantage to help send Maryland to its eighth consecutive defeat. Plagued by turnovers all season, Maryland gave the ball away just 13 times to exhibit its best ball control of the year, but 27 percent shooting proved fatal.

Other double figure scorers included Wake Forest's Alisha Mosley and Maryland's Deedee Warley, who each scored 12.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Despite the return of starting guards Tiffany Brown and Kelley Gibson, Maryland was defeated by No. 15 Rutgers 81-61 in non-conference women's basketball at First National Bank of Maryland Court.

Maryland (0-9), sparked by the return of leading scorers Brown and Gibson after eligibility and injury absences since last season, shot 44 percent and played perhaps its best game of the season. Rutgers, however, shot 53 percent in its best effort of the season, and turned 26 Terrapin turnovers into 30 points.

The Scarlet Knights (9-2) broke open a 20-20 tie with 5:48 remaining in the first half by outscoring Maryland 11-5 before the intermission. In the second half, Rutgers outscored the Terps 50-36. Junior guard Shawnetta Stewart and sophomore forward Linda Miles each scored 22 points in the winning effort.

"We felt it was important to excel at our half court game," said Rutgers coach Vivian Stringer. "Maryland came together well and we needed a great effort to beat them. We stayed intense and played well down the stretch."

Playing the entire 40 minutes, Brown scored 11 points including three 3-pointers, dished off seven assists and recorded three steals. Gibson, meanwhile, came off the bench to score 13 points and tallied four assists. Junior center Branka Bogunovic led the Terps with 14 points and eight rebounds.

Game 16 – Maryland 94, Florida State 76

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Freshman guard Ginji Perry scored a career-high 27 points to lead Maryland to its first Atlantic Coast Conference victory of the season, and its seventh in the last eight games against Florida State. The Terrapins raced to a 16-5 lead and never looked back as they downed the Seminoles 94-76 before a crowd of 2,622 at First National Bank of Maryland Court at Cole Field House.

It was Maryland's first ACC win since a 77-49 defeat of the Seminoles in the same building to end the regular season last year. This time, the Terrapins did it in near-record fashion, placing five players in double figures, scoring 50 first half points and flirting most of the game with school-record 70 percent shooting. Maryland finished 36 of 57 from the floor, shooting 63 percent and finishing with its highest point total since a 95-41 win over Iona on Jan. 22, 1997.

The Terrapins (3-13, 1-6 ACC) led comfortably by 11 with 10:22 to play in the opening period before Perry scored eight of her 17 first half points during an 8-0 Maryland run to stake the home team to a 16-point margin, 26-10, with eight minutes before intermission. Aided by 20 first half turnovers by FSU (6-10, 1-6), Maryland raised its lead to 50-25, then its largest lead at any point of the season — and the most first half points by a Maryland team since 1992.

Maryland led by as many as 30 points in the second half, 73-43, following a tip-in by Marche Strickland with 12:14 remaining. The Seminoles never got closer than 15, in the game's waning minutes.

Perry was the story for the Terps. The freshman and 1997 Washington Post All-Met Player of the Year enjoyed the finest day of her career while shooting eight of 11 from the floor including a pair of 3-pointers. Senior Kelley Gibson scored 12 points with a career-high 10 assists to record her first double-double of the season. Branka Bogunovic and Deedee Warley added 14 points and Strickland pitched in 13. Junior forward Cara Ferris who scored a career-high nine during her second straight starting assignment.

The Maryland victory overshadowed 28 points by Florida State's Brooke Wyckoff who led four Seminoles in double-figure scoring. Arleshia Davidson, Tamara Gracey and Jen Robinson each scored 13.

Game 17 – Georgia Tech 72, Maryland 56

ATLANTA – Freshman Niesha Butler scored a game-high 20 points to lead three Georgia Tech players in double figures as the Yellow Jackets snapped a five-game losing skid by topping Maryland 72-56 in an Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball game at Alexander Memorial Coliseum at McDonald's Center.

The Yellow Jackets (10-8 overall, 3-5 ACC) registered a season-high 19 steals and thwarted a late comeback attempt by the Terrapins (3-14, 1-7). Georgia Tech led through most of the contest, but never by more than 10 until the final two minutes.

Maryland cut a nine-point second-half deficit to four with 6:18 to play, but Tech used an 11-2 spurt to push its lead to 13 with just 1:46 left. After Antonieta Gabriel's layup moved Maryland to within four at 48-44, Tech junior Danielle Donehew answered with a three-pointer to put the Jackets up seven with 4:27 left.

Gabriel answered with another layup to cut the Terp deficit to five, but Maryland got no closer as Butler scored six straight points, and senior Kenya Williams added a basket to put the Jackets up 59-46 with 1:46 to play. Tech sealed the win from the foul line by hitting 6-of-6 free throws in the final minute.

Donehew connected on four 3-pointers for Tech and finished with 17 points. Sophomore Regina Tate added 13 points and nine rebounds, and sophomore Jaime Kruppa had eight points and 12 boards. Kelley Gibson led the Terrapins with 14 points, while Deedee Warley had 12.

Game 18 – (15) Clemson 55, Maryland 45

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Amy Geren scored 17 points and Ifoto Umoh added 15 as No. 15-ranked Clemson outdistanced homestanding Maryland, 55-45, in Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball action.

It was a far cry, however, from the last time these two teams met.

Tied at 22 before taking a 32-26 lead into the intermission, Clemson (17-3, 7-3) could never shake the pesky Terrapins. Joanie Mungro's layup pushed Clemson to its largest lead of the evening, 48-37, with 9:40 to play, but Maryland outscored the Tigers 8-2 over the next eight minutes to draw within 50-45 on a Branka Bogunovic putback with 3:03 remaining. Geren's three-point play with 1:41 remaining pushed the lead to eight, and a pair of free throws by Umoh pushed the lead to 10 with :40 seconds to play.

Almost two months ago at Clemson, the Tigers raced to 20-2 and 40-17 leads en route to an 89-48 victory over a then-winless Maryland team which played five freshmen and lacked the presence of senior forward Kelley Gibson and starting point guard Tiffany Brown. Thirty-two Maryland turnovers resulted in 30 Clemson points.

Insert Brown and Gibson, however, and turn that freshman class into almost-sophomores, and the Terps handed the Tigers a 40-minute scare. Branka Bogunovic led Maryland (3-15, 1-8) with 19 points and 13 rebounds while Gibson sparked the Terps with four 3-pointers and 16 points. Brown contributed seven assists, four steals and eight rebounds.

Clemson shot just 32 percent for the game, and was held 22 points under its 77-point average.

Game 25 – Florida State 69, Maryland 63

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Four Seminoles scored in double figures as the Florida State Seminoles celebrated "Senior Night" with a 69-63 victory over Maryland in their last home game of the season at the Leon County Civic Center. The win snapped a nine-game losing streak for FSU.

Florida State (7-18, 2-13 ACC) trailed only once in the contest as Maryland scored the game's first point. The Seminoles went on a 12-0 run to take a 12-1 advantage and thanks to 50 percent shooting from the field in the first half, led by as many as 14 points in the first 20 minutes. Maryland had 17 turnovers at the break, and trailed 37-26 going to the lockerroom.

Maryland (5-20, 2-13) made a run to start the second half as the Terrapins scored nine straight to pull within 37-35 with 16:41 to go in the game. Four different Terrapin scorers contributed to the run and Kelley Gibson's 3-pointer pulled the Terps to within a pair.

Florida State was able to hold on to the lead despite 29 percent shooting in the second half. At the 9:36 mark, the Trihe regained a double-digit advantage at 53-43 on two of Tamara Gracey's seven free throws. She finished with 11 points.

The Terrapins, however, did not go down without a fight. Florida State led 58-47 with 6:48 on the clock when Maryland scored seven straight to pull within four with under three minutes to play, and would get as close as 66-63 with 51 seconds left — but FSU hit its free throws down the stretch for the victory.

Game 27 – Wake Forest 83, Maryland 66

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – Surprises in conference tournaments are nothing new. Surprising yourself is a bit unusual.

That's what Wake Forest (8-19) did in the opening game of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament. The eighth-seeded Demon Deacons turned in their best performance of the season to advance to a quarterfinal matchup with No. 19 Virginia (19-7), the second seed.

Wake Forest shot a season-high 67 percent from the field and made 10-of-15 3-pointers in an 83-66 rout of seventh-seeded Maryland. It was a performance that left even some of the Demon Deacons stunned.

"I have no idea where that came from," Wake Forest's Heidi Coleman said.

The Demon Deacons jumped to a quick start, taking a 43-32 lead into intermission after hitting 7-of-8 three-pointers in the first half.

"With shooting, sometimes it's there and sometimes it's not," coach Charlene Curtis said. "We hit some shots early and then we gained confidence, and confidence goes a long way on offense."

Maryland had five players in double figures, led by Deedee Warley with 14 points. Branka Bogunovic, Tiffany Brown and Cara Ferris each scored 12, while Kelley Gibson added 11.

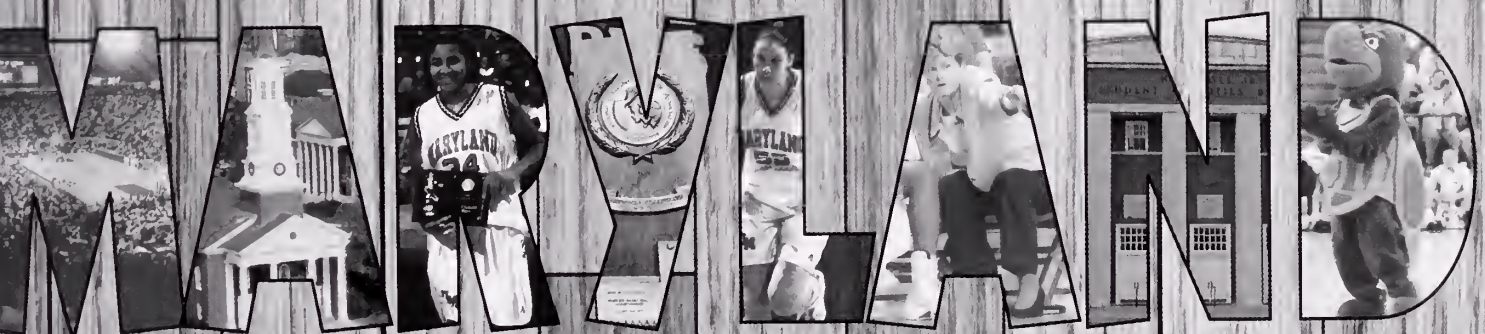
Atlantic Coast Conference

Maryland has won an unprecedented eight ACC titles.



About The Atlantic Coast Conference

The Tradition

Consistency. It's the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

John Swofford, ACC Commissioner

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 47th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 75 national champion-ships, including 38 in men's competition and 37 in women's. In addition, 115 men and 26 women have earned the coveted title of NCAA champion.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA history. The men's and women's basketball programs have combined for 19 trips to the Final Four in the last 18 years, and 40 appearances overall. Following the North Carolina women's national championship season of 1994, the first-ever for the league, ACC men's and women's teams have claimed eight titles while finishing second on 12 occasions.

The league's women's basketball program ranks among the best in the country in terms of overall NCAA Tournament. With 73 appearances and 98 wins, the conference is listed second best in total appearances and total wins.

Over the years, ACC women's basketball teams have gained global recognition through their NCAA Tournament success and television exposure. The 1999-2000 schedule will feature 20 TV games on the league's regional sports network, four games on ESPN2 and one on Lifetime.

ACC Basketball is more than numbers though. The faces behind both programs account for 26 national player of the year honors and 18 national coach of the year awards, including Dawn Staley's player recognition in 1991 and 1992. Coach's distinctions include North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell (1994), Maryland's Chris Weller (1992), Virginia's Debbie Ryan (1991) and NC State's Kay Yow (1990). In women's play, the ACC has produced 27 first-team All-Americans, eight Olympians, including coaches and student-athletes. NC State's Kay Yow, assisted by Sylvia Hatchell of North Carolina, headed up the 1988 gold medal-winning Olympic team. Maryland's Vicky Bullett was a member of both the 1988 and 1992 Olympic teams and Virginia's Dawn Staley was a member of the 1996 gold-medal winning Olympic squad in Atlanta.

The ACC also stands at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics in terms of academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. Since 1983, 259 women's basketball players have received ACC Academic Honor Roll recognition. The 1998-99 academic year included 38 selections. In addition ACC basketball players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors six times. In 1997 NC State's Jennifer Howard was tabbed GTE CoSIDA Academic Player of the Year after posting a 4.0 grade point average throughout her career. Eight players have earned ACC Postgraduate scholarships, while three others were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholars.

A Tradition of Excellence

1998-99 In Review

The 1998-99 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 32 national team titles the last nine years. This past year, the ACC was the only Division I-A conference to have a team play in the national championship game in men's and women's basketball, football and baseball.

The ACC's 1998-99 national champions were Maryland in women's lacrosse, Virginia in men's lacrosse and Duke in women's golf. In addition the ACC had seven other teams participate in national title games - Florida State in football, Virginia in women's lacrosse, Duke in men's and women's basketball, North Carolina in women's soccer, Florida State in baseball and Virginia in rowing. Overall, ACC teams posted a 70-47-1 (.597) mark in NCAA Tournament play.

The ACC placed at least one team in the Top 10 nationally in 15 of the 24 sports sponsored by the league. Other records of note during the 1998-99 season include 76 teams competing at NCAA Championships, five bowl teams and 28 Top 10 showings.

Seven ACC teams, in seven different sports, representing six of the nine member institutions, earned a No. 1 ranking during the course of the past academic year.

The ACC Academic Honor Roll record was broken for the 12th-straight year in 1996-97 as 1,552 student-athletes were recognized for their work in the classroom.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971 when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school withdrew from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964. The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

2000 ACC Tournament

The 2000 ACC Tournament

For the second year in a row, a modified nine-team format will be used for the Atlantic Coast Conference women's basketball tournament. Held from Friday, March 3 through Monday, March 6, the 23rd annual tournament will be staged at Greensboro Coliseum in Greensboro, N.C.

Under the modified format, matching that of the ACC men's tournament, the league's regular season champion and No. 1 seed meets the No. 9 seed in an opening round matchup on Friday. The winner draws an automatic bye to the tournament semifinals. The other opening round game features the No. 7 and No. 8 seeds who play to meet the No. 2 seed in a quarterfinal game on Saturday.

From 1992-1998, the eight and nine seeds played "play-in" games in order to reach the quarterfinals.

"This format should enhance both the overall attendance at the tournament, as well as its television exposure," Commissioner John Swofford said. "With three of our teams making the final eight of last season's NCAA Tournament, and five of our teams finishing the regular season in the Top 15 in the nation, the quality of ACC women's basketball is at an all-time high."

The championship game of the ACC Tournament will be held on Monday for the second year in a row after four years of being played on Sunday afternoon. From 1986 to 1994 the title game was held on Monday, while from 1978 to 1985 the champion was crowned on either Saturday or Sunday.

Great Teams and Great Moments

Great Moments and Great Teams define Maryland women's basketball since it earned varsity distinction in the 1970s, rising quickly among the nation's elite and maintaining excellence and winning seasons nearly 30 years later. Greatness has been synonymous with Terrapin women's hoops. And synonymous with the Terrapins has been Chris Weller who began her Terrapin legacy as first a player in the mid-1960s, only to return later as an assistant, and eventually, head coach.

The Weller Era has been marked by NCAA Tournaments, collegiate milestones and perennial national rankings. Here is a chronological look at highlights – great moments – in Lady Terrapin history.

1972-73

Maryland wins its first state championship with a 46-43 victory over Morgan State.

1974-75

The Terps wind their way to the second of three state titles, finishing 11-6 in the final season under Dottie McKnight. Perhaps most notable was the first-ever women's basketball game ever to be televised on Jan. 26 from Cole Field House. Maryland lost to defending national champion Immaculata.

The first-ever televised women's basketball game.

1975-76

The 1975-76 season is best known as the beginning of the "Chris Weller Era." Maryland successfully defends its state championship and finishes fourth in the EAIAW Regionals in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Terps go 20-4 in Weller's first season with an 18-2 regular season marred only by a pair of one-point losses.

1976-77

Maryland receives its first national ranking on Nov. 25 with a No. 15 billing by the Associated Press. The Terps would finish in the No. 16 spot at season's end, but not after a 17-6 final record and fourth-place finish in the EAIAW Regionals. Maryland downs Virginia 79-67 on Feb. 11 to mark the beginning of the Terrapins' second-longest series in history. Jane Zivalich becomes the first Terp chosen for the U.S. Select Team.

1977-78

The Terps register their best season to date, with numerous "firsts." Maryland captures the first of its now unprecedented eight ACC championships, earns a second-place finish in the EAIAW Tournament and finishes sixth in the final AP poll. The Terps beat UCLA and Olympian Ann Myers, 92-88 on Jan. 4 in a preview to the eventual national title bout. In the midst of an 11-game win streak to open the season and a 117-47 win over Duke, Maryland grabs a still-standing record 29 steals on Jan. 14. Maryland bests No. 2 NC State 89-82 on Feb. 11 to win the ACC title, and Tara Heiss establishes what is still the school mark for single game assists with 17 against Rutgers on Feb. 28. Weller's upset magic continues with a win over No. 1 ranked Tennessee on March 17 and a win over Southern Connecticut sends the Terps to the first-ever AIAW Final Four. Maryland downs Wayland Baptist on March 23 to win its first game in Final Four history. On March 25 a record crowd of 9,351 and national television audience on NBC Sports World watch host UCLA defeat the Terps 90-74 at Pauley Pavilion for the national championship.

1978-79

The Terps capture their second straight ACC title and reach the AIAW National Tournament for the second straight season. Maryland achieves its highest national ranking on Nov. 25 with a spot in the No. 2 position. The Terps down NC State in Raleigh on Feb. 10 to claim their second ACC banner. Maryland finishes 22-7 and ends the campaign with a No. 8 national ranking.

1979-80

Kris Kirchner logs her name in the Terp record book with a modest 15-point effort against Seton Hall on Feb. 29. Its significance is her contribution to 1,351 points to establish a Maryland career record. Maryland captures its first EAIAW Regional Tournament title with a 79-70 win over Rutgers on March 8. Jane Zivalich is named a Rhodes Scholar finalist and the Terps advance to the AIAW quarterfinals. Maryland finishes with a No. 6 national ranking and a 21-9 record for its third straight 20-win season. Tara Heiss is named to the 1980 U.S. Olympic squad.

1980-81

Maryland continues its prominence in the EAIAW Regional, advancing to the title game for the fourth straight season. A 64-63 win over emerging rival NC State on Feb. 14 helps the Terps capture the ACC crown for the third time in its first four years of existence, and finish with a No. 8 ranking in the Associated Press poll. A trip to the national tournament in Knoxville, Tenn., results in a win over Kentucky and a loss to the homestanding Volunteers.

1981-82

"Four" becomes a magical number to Chris Weller and her crew as the Terps win 25 times to advance to their second Final Four – this time it is the first NCAA Final Four just four years after appearing in the national title game in the first-ever AIAW Final Four. The Terps capture their fourth ACC title with a 93-81 win over Clemson on Feb. 28. The Terps earn the No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional and defeat Stanford 82-48 in Cole Field House to mark the campus' first NCAA Tournament game on March 14. The Terps trek west for a win over Missouri on March 19, and Drake two days later to earn a trip to their second Final Four. Cheyney State upends Maryland 76-66 to end the season on March 26, but not without a No. 3 billing in the final AP poll to mark the highest poll finish in Maryland history.

The Terps have been to three Final Fours.

Maryland tops Rutgers 83-66 on Jan. 26 to run its school record win streak to 16 games to open the season. NC State knocks the Terps from the ranks of unbeaten on Jan. 29, though only five weeks later the Terrapins earn revenge by downing the Wolfpack 84-81 for their fifth ACC crown on March 6. Maryland earns the No. 3 seed in the East Region and defeats Central Michigan on March 19 in an opening-round game. Maryland eventually falls to Old Dominion in the regional semifinal and ends the year with a No. 7 national ranking. The Terps conclude the season as the NCAA leaders in field goal percentage statistics, behind the strength of Kodak All-American Jasmina Perazic – Maryland's first to be so honored.

1983-84

The Terps fail to win 20 games for the first time in three seasons, but record at least 19 for the seventh straight year. Maryland is ranked 17th in the final Associated Press poll and earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region.

1984-85

Maryland enters the 1984-85 season having been ranked in the AP Top 20 for 128 consecutive weeks — the most by any team in the nation. Weller spends her summer months as assistant coach for the U.S. National Jones Cup team.

Great Teams and Great Moments

poll released by USA Today, and ninth by AP. Junior Vicky Bullett breaks Maryland's all-time scoring and rebounding marks with still a year to play, and stars for the U.S. Olympic team during August 1988. She wins a gold medal in the Summer Games while averaging 4.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in five games.

1988-89

Maryland's most successful season? Perhaps. Vicky Bullett and Deanna Tate both earn Kodak All-America honors as the Terps embark on an all-time best 29-3 record. Included in the mark was another perfect home record, 12-0, which ran Maryland's Cole Field House win streak to 27. On March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia 89-66 to win its 17th consecutive game, a new school record. The Terps won four more games to establish the existing school mark of 21 straight victories. The 18th win of the streak, March 6 against NC State, secures an eighth ACC title. Bullett is named the league's player of the year as Maryland enters the NCAA West Region as the No. 1 seed. Maryland notches win 19 of the streak on March 18 against Bowling Green with a 73-68 opening round win at Cole Field House. The streak grows to 21 with a 79-71 win over Texas on its home floor on March 25, earning the Terps a trip to their third Final Four. On ESPN in a national semifinal on March 31, Maryland watches its season and its streak wind to a close with a 77-65 loss to Tennessee.

1989-90

Maryland reaches its third straight NCAA Tournament with a 19-11 record. Maryland wins its first home game against George Mason on Nov. 29 to run its record home court win streak to 28 games before falling on Dec. 6 to defending national champ Tennessee. Dafne Lee helps the Terps to an 85-84 overtime win over Wake Forest to begin a four-game win streak heading into the ACC Tournament.

Bullett became the all-time leading scorer in 1988.

In the process, she scores 39 points against the Deamon Deacons to tie the school record. On Feb. 16, Maryland earns a No. 6 seed in the NCAA East Region and downs Appalachian State 100-71 for its final win on March 14 at Cole Field House.

1990-91

Maryland wins five straight games at mid-season to help in building a 17-13 mark and earn a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. Maryland advances to the ACC semifinals with a 91-73 win over Georgia Tech.

1991-92

One of the Terps' most exciting seasons saw Maryland finish 25-6 in 1991-92, including the first No. 1 ranking in school history and a Cole Field House sellout crowd of 14,500 to watch No. 1 Maryland and No. 2 Virginia. No. 3 Maryland downs top-ranked Virginia 67-65 in Charlottesville on UM's Final Four game with Tennessee was on ESPN.

Jan. 15 to mark the second time in history that the Terps had beaten a No. 1 team. The win catapults the Terps to their first-ever No. 1 ranking on Jan. 21, a post they would hold for four weeks. Maryland wins its first five games to defend the ranking and runs its win streak to 11 games overall to set up a Virginia rematch on Feb. 11 at Cole Field House. The Cole sellout still is the largest ACC crowd in history and one of the largest in collegiate women's history. The Cavaliers return the favor against Maryland, downing the Terps 75-74 and sending UM to a .500 record the rest of the season. Maryland exits the ACC Tournament after an opening round upset by Georgia Tech, and bows to Western Kentucky in the Mideast Regional finals. The Terps end the season ranked eighth in both national polls, and Chris Weller is a consensus pick as national coach of the year.

1992-93

Jessie Hicks scores 20 points to lead the Terrapins past No. 1 Tennessee, Dec. 30 at Cole Field House. It is Maryland's third win ever against a top-ranked foe, and coupled with a Jan. 2 victory over No. 10 Purdue, propels the Terps to a No. 3 ranking of its own. Maryland falls to Virginia, 106-103, in a memorable triple-overtime championship game of the ACC Tournament on March 8, but earns a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Mideast Region. The Terps are upset in an opening round game at Cole Field House, 86-82, by Southwest Missouri State. Maryland ends the campaign 22-8, and ranked 11th by the Associated Press and 18th by USA Today.

1993-94

Maryland wins five straight at mid-season, but drops four heading into the ACC Tournament. The Terps finish 15-13 while ranking as high as No. 16 during the year. Maryland falls to Virginia in the ACC Tournament semifinals and gets its bubble burst when it fails to earn an NCAA bid for the first time in seven seasons.

1994-95

A promising rookie class of recruits is rated as high as fourth-best in the country, though Maryland still takes its lumps during an 11-18 season. The Terps down William & Mary and Butler to lay claim to its own Dial Soap Classic in December. Maryland defeats NC State 83-80 at Cole Field House for Chris Weller's 400th career victory on Jan. 28.

The Terps had a sellout against Virginia in 1992.

1995-96

Maryland upends No. 14 Duke at Cole Field House on Feb. 5, and No. 18 Clemson at Cole a week later on Feb. 10. The Terrapins finish 13-14, but again advance to the ACC semifinals.

1996-97

In her 22nd season as coach, Chris Weller readies the troops for another run at the NCAA Tournament. Maryland wins a pair of early-season tournaments and leads the nation in scoring defense through much of January. The Terps defeat No. 14 Duke 68-64 on Jan. 12, and drop No. 15 NC State by a 54-51 count on Jan. 18. The Terps defeat No. 21 Clemson on the road on Feb. 22 to earn a No. 3 seed in the ACC Tournament, but fall in a first-round game to Duke, 60-52 in overtime. The Terrapins manage an at-large NCAA bid in the Midwest Region.

1997-98

Facing a schedule ranked the third-strongest in the nation, Maryland leads the ACC in scoring defense and ranked 29th nationally. Maryland wins seven straight early games. Highlights include a pair of wins over Top 20 foes: No. 7 North Carolina on Jan. 18 and later No. 9 NC State in the ACC Tournament quarterfinals. Tiffany Brown nets a school record seven 3-pointers in the win over North Carolina before a national TV audience on ESPN2.

1998-99

A young Terrapin squad overcomes the absence of key seniors to finish seventh in the ACC and capture its third consecutive title in the Terrapin Classic on Dec. 29.

Coaching History

Dottie McKnight

44-17, .721 - 4 Years (1971-75)

The first coach in the varsity era of women's basketball at the University of Maryland, McKnight directed a fledgling program into immediate success. In her four seasons at the Maryland helm, she never had a losing season. Her program was certainly not as established as it would become after her departure, but McKnight, in fact, boasts a better winning percentage than her successor, Chris Weller. McKnight laid claim to Maryland's first state championship in 1973, and won a second in 1975 with Weller as her assistant.

Chris Weller

453-242, .652 - 24 Years (1975-Pres.)

Chris Weller dominates Maryland women's basketball. She has guided her alma mater to a national championship game and to three Final Fours in total. Her Maryland teams have enjoyed national rankings in 14 seasons and she has engineered an unprecedented eight Atlantic Coast Conference championships. In 1995, she became just the fifth coach in women's college history to earn at least 400 victories at the same school. Three years earlier, her Terps were No. 1-ranked for nearly a month and drew to College Park a sellout crowd that still is the largest in history to watch an ACC women's basketball game. She has been a pioneer, architect and engineer to one of the most successful programs in the nation.

LEADING THE WAY INTO THE 21ST CENTURY

- A Carnegie Research-I University
- Member, Association of American Universities (AAU)
- Flagship of the University System of Maryland
- Division I NCAA Athletics

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Ten years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment.

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

The Campus

The University of Maryland, College Park, is the most comprehensive institution of higher education, research and service in the state. The university offers 100 undergraduate majors, 88 master's programs and 69 doctoral programs in 13 colleges and schools.

The university is one of only 30 public research universities that are members of the prestigious 58-member Association of American Universities. It is classified as a Research-I university by the Carnegie Foundation by virtue of the range of its baccalaureate programs, the amount of federal support received and the number of doctoral degrees awarded each year, sharing that honor with the top research universities in the country.

Among the public universities in the Association of American Universities, Maryland ranks among the top in percentage of African-American undergraduate students. In addition, the university has the largest number of African-Americans and other minority members among its peers.

Flagship Status

In 1988, the University of Maryland, College Park, was designated as the flagship institution for the University System of Maryland. As well as pursuing a serious research mission and continuing its high level of service to the state, the university rededicated itself to providing the highest quality graduate and undergraduate education. Increased undergraduate opportunities for research and individual study; the development of the College Park Scholars Program and the expansion of the University Honors Program; the genesis of Honors Humanities and Gemstone; the creation of CORE, the general education program; and the establishment of the Center for Teaching Excellence all affirmed the legislature's designation of flagship.

Libraries

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

Research

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location — just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis — enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

Service

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

A Wired World

Students at the University of Maryland are part of an academic community that enjoys free access to networked computer resources and facilities that are among the best in the country. Free computer accounts enable users to store class work on a networked server, download classroom support materials and other electronic information from campus networked resources such as inforM, or send electronic mail to faculty, fellow students or friends at other universities.

COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

College of Agriculture and Natural Resources

The College of Agriculture and Natural Resources offers a variety of academic programs that apply science, management, design, and engineering to improve the world in which we live and work. Feeding the world population, developing scientifically-based land use practices and policies, understanding animal and plant biology, improving nutrition and its effects on human health, and profitably managing farms and agribusinesses in harmony with ecosystems are all vital concerns of the college.

School of Architecture

The School of Architecture offers a four-year undergraduate program leading to the bachelor of science degree in architecture, and a graduate program leading to the professional master of architecture. The undergraduate major in architecture is designed to minimize the time required to complete the curriculum leading to the professional degree. Students receive rigorous and comprehensive instruction from a faculty whose members are active in professional practice or research. Many faculty members have distinguished themselves across the professional spectrum and represent different approaches to architectural design. The B.S. degree in architecture will qualify graduates to pursue a career in any number of fields, such as construction, real estate development, public administration, or historic preservation, or to continue in graduate work in professional fields such as architecture, urban planning, or law.

College of Arts and Humanities

The College of Arts and Humanities embraces a heterogeneous group of disciplines, all of which value the development of critical thinking, fluent expression in writing and speech, sensitivity to ethical and aesthetic standards, and a complex understanding of history and culture.

College of Behavioral and Social Sciences

The College of Behavioral and Social Sciences is comprised of a diverse group of disciplines and fields of study all of which emphasize a broad liberal arts education as the foundation for understanding the environmental, social and cultural forces that shape our world. Disciplines in the behavioral and social sciences use approaches that range from the scientific to the philosophical, from the experimental to the theoretical.

Robert H. Smith School of Business

The Robert H. Smith School of Business recognizes the importance of education in business and management to economic, social, and professional development through profit and non-profit organizations at the local, regional, national and international levels. The faculty are scholars, teachers, and professional leaders with a commitment to superior education in business and management, specializing in accounting, finance, decision and information sciences, management science and statistics, management and organization, marketing, logistics and transportation, and business and public policy.

College of Computer, Mathematical, and Physical Sciences

The College of Computer, Mathematical, and Physical Sciences contributes very substantially and effectively to the research activities of the University of Maryland. This college is like a technical institute within a large university. Students majoring in any one of the disciplines encompassed by the college have the opportunity of obtaining an outstanding education in their field.

College of Education

The College of Education is a professional college committed to advancing the science and art of teaching/learning, including the practices and processes which occur from infancy through adulthood in both school and non-school settings. The college's mission is to provide preparation for current and future teachers, counselors, administrators, educational specialists, and other related educational personnel.

A. James Clark School of Engineering

The mission of the Clark School of Engineering is to provide quality engineering education, with sufficient scope to include both fundamental and specialized engineering training, so that graduates are prepared to serve the current and emerging needs of society. In addition to its teaching role, the school feels a related responsibility to conduct strong research programs that contribute to the advancement of knowledge.

College of Health and Human Performance

The College of Health and Human Performance provides preparation leading to the bachelor of science degree in the following professional areas: physical education (K-12), health education (school and community), and family studies. The college also offers curricula in kinesiological sciences and safety education. In addition, each department offers a wide variety of courses for all university students.

College of Journalism

Located just nine miles from the nation's capital and 30 miles from the bustling commercial port of Baltimore, the College of Journalism is one of six comprehensive journalism schools in the 10 states stretching from New York to Virginia — the nation's most populous region. But the college has a lot more than geography going for it. The National Assessment of Journalism Education by the Freedom Forum Media Studies Center at Columbia University designated the college one of "Eleven Exemplary Journalism schools" nationwide: those that surpass others in criteria including teaching, research, facilities and job placement.

College of Library and Information Services

The College of Library and Information Services offers degree programs for individuals interested in careers in information services and management. At the master's level, students may specialize in several fields, including archival studies, geographic information systems, health information services, school library media services, and science and technology information systems.

College of Life Sciences

The College of Life Sciences offers educational opportunities for students in subject matters relating to living organisms and their interaction with one another and with the environment. Programs of study include those involving the most fundamental concepts of biological science and chemistry and the use of knowledge in daily life, as well as the application of economic and engineering principles in planning the improvement of life.

School of Public Affairs

The School of Public Affairs provides graduate-level, professional education to men and women interested in careers in public service. Five disciplines are emphasized: finance, statistics, economics, politics, and ethics. Students specialize in international security and economic policy, public sector financial management, environmental policy, or social policy.

More, Better Students Want to Go to Maryland

The University of Maryland projects another record-breaking year for the quality of admitted students. The number of applications, GPAs and SAT scores all were up from the same time last year.

For the last 10 years, the quality of students being admitted to the University of Maryland has risen steadily. Average GPAs for incoming freshmen have risen from just under 3.0 to a projected 3.69, SAT scores of the middle 50 percent have gone from 980-1,150 to a projected 1,170-1,340, and the number of students with SAT scores above 1,300 has increased from 234 to a projected 1,155.

The University of Maryland has the state's largest concentration of academically talented students, with more than one-third of them enrolled in the invitation-only Honors, Honors Humanities, College Park Scholar or Gemstone programs.

No Better Place To Be...

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland. As Washingtonian magazine noted in its December, 1997 issue, "...kids are turning down schools like Princeton and Virginia to go to College Park." With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are more than 100 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. For instance, in the 1999 U.S. News and World Report rankings of graduate schools, the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 17th in the nation, the School of Public Affairs was ranked 20th, and the College of Education placed 23rd. The Maryland School of Business was ranked 26th, and also was named one of the country's 25 best business schools for entrepreneurs by Success magazine. And, the university's School of Music was ranked 30th in the country in the first U.S. News and World Report reputational survey of arts programs since 1994.

For exceptional students seeking an exceptional education at the University of Maryland, College Park, there are a number of programs designed to enrich the learning experience. Among them are the Honors Program, ranked among the nine best in the country by ARCO's Guide to Ivy League Programs at State School Prices; College Park Scholars, which encourages students who share common intellectual interests to live and study together in 10 specialty areas; and the Gemstone Program, which links student teams from engineering, the humanities, business and the physical sciences in a four-year research project.

Supporting the research needs of students and faculty are some of the country's best research facilities. In 1994, the largest, most technically advanced research archives in the world — National Archives II — moved to College Park. In addition, just outside of College Park are the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institution and the National Libraries of Agriculture and Medicine, among others. The university itself has the most comprehensive library system in the area.

High tech, engineering and service industries thrive in proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internship and work-study opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide. The Kennedy Center alone houses the National Symphony Orchestra, five performance stages, an opera company, and the American Film Institute. In Baltimore, one of the great ports of the world, the Inner Harbor has become a cultural magnet for thousands of tourists each year, offering the National Aquarium, the Maryland Science Center, and other attractions.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland, College Park offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities. There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

President C.D. Mote, Jr.

C. D. (Dan) Mote Jr. took office as president in September 1998 with a clear vision for taking the University of Maryland down the home stretch to its destiny as one of America's great research universities.

Mote came to Maryland from the University of California at Berkeley, where he had earned all of his degrees, and where he had served in faculty and administration more than 30 years. He had most recently been vice chancellor for university relations.

In Maryland, he found a university already well on its way to achieving the greatness envisioned when the General Assembly declared it the flagship institution of the University System of Maryland. Mote immediately took a leadership role on the Governor's Task Force on Governance, Coordination and Funding of the University System of Maryland to gain greater autonomy and flexibility for the university to pursue its goals. He followed that by working closely with state leaders to boost university funding for new programs, scholarships and faculty, gaining a 10 percent appropriations increase in his first year.

When the legislature had finished its work for the year, Mote spelled out in his inauguration address his vision of Maryland as a great research university, where teaching and research are "inseparable." In this plan, the faculty creates a culture of excellence that permeates the university, student success is the center of all activity, and the extended Maryland family of alumni and friends grows rich in pride and tradition.

In his inaugural address, Mote observed that "a decade ago, we dreamed the impossible – the great research university. Then we sought the improbable – the great research university. Soon we will grasp the inevitable – the great research university."

High achievement has been Dan Mote's life, from his student days at the University of California through his years as an outstanding teacher and world-renowned researcher and his leadership of a highly successful capital campaign at Berkeley. He arrived in College Park determined to continue the same level of achievement in his new post.

After earning his doctorate in engineering mechanics from Berkeley in 1963, Mote spent a year as a research fellow at the University of Birmingham in England, then three years as assistant professor of mechanical engineering at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh before returning to Berkeley in 1967. There he stayed for more than 30 years before coming to Maryland. He was promoted to professor in 1973.

Mote served two terms as vice chair of mechanical engineering and served as chair from 1987 to 1991. At that time, he was appointed to the endowed FANUC Chair in mechanical systems, in addition to being named vice chancellor for university relations, the post he held until accepting the presidency at Maryland in 1998. Mote has participated with distinction in every phase of the academic enterprise, including classroom teaching, working with students, basic research, applied research and service to the university and the community.

Much respected by his students, Mote earned the 1971 Distinguished Teaching Award and the 1975 Pi Tau Sigma Excellence in Teaching Award for the University of California. He has supervised the research of more than 50 doctoral students, including several who are still in progress, and more than 60 master's theses. He has continued teaching and supervising graduate students even during his administrative assignments, and several of his graduate students from Berkeley commute to Maryland to meet with him as they finish their dissertations. Mote has stated his intention to teach and work with graduate students at Maryland as well.

Mote's research activities have focused on dynamic systems, instrumentation, vibration and biomechanics. He has achieved international recognition for his work on the stability of gyroscopic systems, including high-speed translating and rotating systems such as circular and band saws, computer memory disks and tapes. He also has researched the biomechanics of skiing injuries and the development of safer ski bindings. His research has resulted in more than 300 scholarly publications as well as patents in the United States, Norway, Finland and Sweden.

He was elected to the prestigious National Academy of Engineering in 1988, and in that same year was awarded the Humboldt Prize by the Federal Republic of Germany. In 1991, the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science awarded him a fellowship.

In 1992, he conceived, designed and implemented a $1.1 billion comprehensive capital campaign, which has exceeded $1 billion to date.

During Mote's first year at Maryland, the university's ongoing capital campaign, Bold Vision• Bright Future, passed the half-way point more than four months ahead of schedule and recorded an all-time record for one month with more than $29 million raised in April 1999. The April figure included two gifts totaling $23 million that were given in part to celebrate his inauguration.

But Mote has said repeatedly that development and capital campaigns are not principally about raising money.

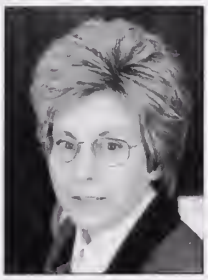
"They are about the university building relationships with its alumni and friends of the university through the quality people and quality programs on campus. If we succeed in building authentic relationships, fund-raising happens as naturally as the women's lacrosse team scores a goal."

Mote and his wife Patsy live in the President's Residence on the College Park campus. They have two grown children and four grandchildren.

Athletic Director Deborah A. Yow

Dr. Deborah A. Yow has led Terrapin athletics to balanced budgets, high levels of productivity and achievement and a vigorous commitment to excellence throughout its operations. She is in her sixth year as Maryland's director of athletics.

Since taking over at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:



- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all five of the more than $25 million annual budgets (the first balanced budgets for the Terrapins in 10 years).
- Improved graduation rates for student-athletes, above that of the general student population, in three of those five years.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 10 percent of all NCAA Division I schools.
- Reorganized and upgraded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 85% and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 270% during her tenure at Maryland.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Paid off $7 million in operating debt accrued before her arrival in 1994.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fundraising applications.
- Significantly improved customer service in every area.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past five years, Debbie Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves." As a manager and leader, she clearly models these principles.

Dr. Yow is a member of the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee. In addition, she will become president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics in July 2000, and was recently singled out by Street & Smith Sports Business Journal as one of the leading athletic administrators in the U.S.

A former basketball coach, she began her coaching career at the high school level in North Carolina before taking over as head women's coach at the University of Kentucky in 1976. She also achieved an outstanding coaching record as head coach at the University of Florida. She later moved into athletic administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics, management, and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Terrapin athletic program, Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets and our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our successes ... and the basis for our bright future."

Academic Support & Career Development

The University of Maryland considers intercollegiate athletics an integral part of the collegiate experience. Its existence ptovides an opportunity for students, faculty, alumni and students to share in the life of intercollegiate athletics.

The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics sttives to achieve the same standards of excellence in its athletics program as exist within the university's teaching, research and public setvice programs. The department embraces the concept that the student-athlete is first and foremost a student, possessing academic abilities, personal interests and ambitions comparable to those of the other members of the student body.

The mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit, headed by assistant athletic director Demetrius Marlowe, is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that enhance the academic progtess, facilitate the career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of every student-athlete.

The recently remodeled Gossett Academic Support and Cateer Development Center for Terrapin Student-Athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is housed in Cole Field House. It features a 24-station computer lab, study table room, tutorial room, and individual offices for five full-time counselors, an academic support coordinator, and two graduate assistants. In addition, an academic counselor and an auxiliary computer lab are housed in the Gossett Football Team House at Byrd Stadium.

Programs and services offered by the Academic Support and Career Development Unit include the following:

- Prospective student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- Academic planning
- Academic monitoring
- Academic record keeping
- Academic, personal, and careet development enhancement programs
- Structured study table
- Tutorial support
- Computer skills development
- Peer mentor program
- Career development program

MAPS Directory

This directory, the Maryland Athletes Placement Source, is produced annually by the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin their professional careers.

Distributed to more than 1,000 corporations and businesses around the region, prospective employers are inttoduced to our graduating student-athletes with resumé infotmation relative to academic, career and personal achievements.

Terp Choices

Terp Choices is a progtam designed to guide student-athletes by orienting, supportting and increasing awareness of the televant issues pertaining to student-athletes in today's world. The focus of the program is making personal choices and how they may affect an entire team, not just a single individual. Education and interactive workshops ate presented to the athletic team and are led by student educators.

The Mentorship Program

The Terrapin Cateer Mentorship ptogram involves an alumni-based group of individuals who are interested in wotking with graduating student-athletes. The mentors aid students thtough the process of making the ttansition from college to the work wotld. Attempts are made to match the individual student-athlete with a mentor from the same field of intetest. Mentors are asked to assist the student-athlete in preparing the necessary tools to make him or her a more competitive job seeker.

Internship Program

The Internship Program is offered every spring to student-athletes who have earned 40 and 80 credits. The goal is to secute local summer intetnships for all interested student-athletes in an appropriate field of study.

Career Information Fairs

Career Awareness in Academic Support is expanding to include a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the semestet. Career awareness is an ongoing process and includes assistance with tesume writing and interview skills. The end of the semester btings a careet awareness fair which hosts a number of professionals with whom student-athletes can leatn about career interests and planning. Unlike typical "job faits," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking ditectly to individuals in theit chosen area of interest.

Student-Athlete Advisory Council

The Student-Athlete Advisoty Council consists of teptesentatives from each varsity spott and meets on a regular basis with teptesentatives from the athletic administration. The main purpose of the council is to provide the student-athletes and administtation a forum for dialogue. The most important function is to exptess issues and concerns of the student-athlete population and to have the administration address these issues in the best way possible. Discussions between the student-athletes and the administration are vital to the success of the council and the athletic department.

Support Staff

Karen Schiferl is in her first year as the associate director of Maryland's ASCDU. Schiferl, who came to College Patk in the spring of 1999, is responsible for maintianing academic records and advising student-athletes for the following sports: women's basketball, field hockey, volleyball, gymnastics and women's lacrosse. She also oversees the tutorial program and study table.

Most recently, she was the coordinator of academic counseling fot student-athletes and the NCAA Life Skills Coordinator at Northern Illinois Univetsity.

Medical Staff

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's sports medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Orthopedic surgeon Leigh Ann Curl, M.D., serves as the head team physician. Dr. Curl is part of the growing University Sports Medicine program of the University of Maryland Medical Center, which also provides medical care for the Baltimore Ravens of the NFL, UMBC, Coppin State University and 14 high schools.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. Dr. Curl is an excellent physician who understands college athletics. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools, like North Carolina, Virginia, Duke and Wake Forest."

Leigh Ann Curl, M.D., Head Team Physician

Leigh Ann Curl, a former All-American basketball player at the University of Connecticut and a 1998 inductee into the GTE Academic All-America Hall of Fame, is beginning her third year as Maryland's head team physician.

Dr. Curl, who is a member of the University of Maryland School of Medicine faculty as an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery, has performed volunteer work as team physician for USA Basketball, USA Rugby, Johns Hopkins University, St. John's University, the New York Mets and the New York City public schools recreation program.

She received her medical degree in 1989 from Johns Hopkins, where she served her internship and residency. She was a fellow in sports medicine and shoulder surgery at The Hospital for Special Surgery at Cornell University Medical Center in New York City.

Dr. Curl graduated summa cum laude from the University of Connecticut in 1985 and was her class valedictorian. She was a four-year starter on the women's basketball team, serving two years as team captain, and became the third women's basketball player in school history to score 1,000 points. She currently ranks 10th in career points and fifth in rebounds at UConn. A two-time GTE Academic All-America, Curl also was a two-time Big East Conference Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Yvette Rooks, M.D., Primary Care Physician

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her first year as the primary care physician for Maryland's athletic program. Dr. Rooks graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Albany where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team. Dr. Rooks graduated from Upstate Medical School/ Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993, and she completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore. She is an assistant professor in the department of family medicine at University of Maryland, Baltimore, and is the co-team physician at Coppin State.

Sandy Worth Head Trainer

Sandy Worth, who has been affiliated with Maryland's athletic program since 1973, coordinates and directs the medical care for the Terps' football program in addition to her responsibilities as the university's head athletic trainer.

A native of Timonium, Md., Worth supervises and schedules a professional staff of five full-time assistants and approximately 25 student trainers who combine to provide medical assistance to the university's more than 600 student-athletes. Worth, a 1973 graduate of Maryland, joined the Terps' staff that same year as an associate trainer. She was promoted to head trainer in 1992. During her career at Maryland, Worth has worked directly with five teams that have captured national championships — four in women's lacrosse and one in field hockey. In addition, she was the trainer for the women's basketball program when it won eight ACC titles and advanced to three NCAA Final Fours.

Matt Charvat Women's Basketball Trainer

Matt Charvat enters his first season as the women's basketball trainer at Maryland. He came to College Park after two years on the training staff at Morehead State. A native of Hinckley, Ohio, Charvat earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Baldwin-Wallace College in Berea, Ohio. He also worked as a trainer for the Canton-Akron Indians Double-A baseball team for six years.

He earned his master's degree from Morehead State in Exercise Science in 1999.

Strength and Conditioning

In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Dwight Galt and Barry Kagan of Maryland's strength and conditioning department, believe strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and in turn has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Dwight Galt

Barry Kagan

At the University of Maryland, the maximal development of athleticism is the primary goal of the strength and conditioning program. To accomplish this requires more than just strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, agility, flexibility, conditioning, plyometrics, and nutrition also play critical roles. The Terps' strength staff places substantial emphasis on all these areas, with special attention on the improvement of speed potential. Galt and his staff employ a wide range of state-of-the-art training methods to assist in enhancing all aspects of speed development.

The Terrapins are fortunate to train in one of the premier weight training facilities in the United States. Conveniently located in the Gossett Football Team House, this facility has excellent aesthetic appeal, with two magnificent skylights and large windows overlooking the playing field at Byrd Stadium. The Terps' spacious weight room includes 7,200 square feet of functional floor space, with two elevated offices that are easily accessible to the training floor.

Terrapin Club

What is the Terrapin Club?

As the scholarship fund-raising arm of the athletic department, the Terrapin Club is composed of approximately 4,500 members who contribute money annually to help pay the scholarship costs of our student-athletes. For many student-athletes, scholarships are the only means available to continue their education; for others, scholarships provide the opportunity to compete at the highest level of athletic competition in America's premier conference, the Atlantic Coast Conference.

R. Calvert Steuart
Terrapin Club
President

With nearly 600 student-athletes, 400 of whom benefit from scholarship support, the scholarship bill for the coming year is approximately $4.5 million. For the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1999, the Terrapin Club contributed approximately $2.9 million toward scholarships.

How Much Should I Contribute?

As a Terrapin Club member, you can contribute the minimum of $125 or any higher amount. Your benefits of membership, however, do vary depending on your level and amount of contribution. The Terrapin Club is composed of seven levels of membership, ranging from the Top Terp level, where members contribute at least $10,000 per year, to the Silver level, where members contribute $125 per year.

What Benefits Do I Receive for Being a Member?

Members of the Terrapin Club directly assist the university in providing athletic scholarships. In addition, benefits of membership include priority seating for football and basketball, preferred parking, a monthly newsletter, and invitations to receptions and Terrapin Club events. Furthermore, you must be a member of the Terrapin Club to purchase men's basketball season tickets.

What Methods of Contributing are Available?

Direct gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa or Mastercard). As a donor, you have the option of contributing once annually or periodically throughout the year.

The University of Maryland Foundation (the depository for scholarship money) qualifies for most charitable matching gift programs. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

Is My Donation Tax Deductible?

Current federal income tax laws allow a charitable deduction of 80 percent of a contribution to an educational institution, when the result of such a contribution is seating rights for athletic events. Please consult your individual tax advisor for additional information.

How is My Seat Location Determined?

Ticket assignments for football and basketball and all special events (the ACC Tournament, bowl games, etc.) are based on a point system designed to reward loyalty and total dollar contributions. Terpoints also are awarded for consecutive years of participation and referrals of new members.

Still Have Questions?

Call the Terrapin Club at (301) 314-7020 or (800) 653-7667, or refer to our web site at www.umd.edu/terrapinclub.

Major Gift Fundraising

Maryland Educational Foundation 'Endowments for the Future'

The primary mission of the Maryland Educational Foundation (MEF) is to provide scholarship endowment funds in support of the athletic department's annual athletic scholarship expenses. By supporting talented, deserving student-athletes, donors ensure that our legacy of excellence will continue and grow. For more than 50 years, the MEF has provided financial support for Maryland athletics and is an important part of the department's gift-giving program. The vision of the MEF is to raise enough dollars through private gifts to build an endowment capable of permanently funding many of the university's scholarships now being awarded.

What is an endowment? An endowment is a gift in which the principal is held in perpetuity, with only the income used (in part or whole) for scholarships. The MEF invites you to discuss gifts such as cash, securities, real estate, insurance, personal property, life income, gifts of pooled income funds, charitable remainder trusts, charitable gift annuities, wills and bequests. An endowment gift is truly a significant investment in the future of Maryland athletics. Contact Cheryl Harrison at (301) 314-7020 if you would like more information.

Cheryl Harrison,
Director, Development-
Major Gifts

Major Gifts 'Building on a Winning Tradition'

The continued excellence of the University of Maryland athletics program is greatly enhanced by the support it receives through private gifts beyond the annual Terrapin Club contributions. Cash gifts for capital projects truly distinguish any great institution's athletic program, thus guaranteeing a future as rich as its past. A gift of cash is the most critical type of donation to the Major Gifts Development Unit. Quality athletic facilities attract top-notch student-athletes to our university, and they attract alumni and friends back to campus to enjoy Maryland Terrapins intercollegiate athletic competition.

The primary focus of the Major Gifts program is to refurbish existing facilities and build new ones. Our most significant project at this time is the proposed new arena. We currently have many excellent naming opportunities available. If you have an interest in a naming opportunity, or in making a major gift in support of Maryland athletics, please call Cheryl Harrison at (301) 314-7020. They will be delighted to show you how both the donor and Terrapin athletics can benefit from a major gift to the University of Maryland.

David Diehl,
Director, M Club

The M Club Athletes Helping Athletes

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,000 former Maryland varsity athletes.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for the 25 varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund and support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts. Members receive the monthly athletic department publication (TerpTalk) for information about the current teams and news about your former teammates.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization. Stay involved with Maryland athletics.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020.

Cole Field House

When college basketball was achieving its most explosive growth - from the late 1950's to the late 1970's – there was one college gymnasium on the East Coast that sat as many as 12,000 fans. Cole Field House epitomized the new big time, main event status of college hoops, the sport of network TV and emerging legends. It stands today as a building that faces cosmetic renewal over the next several years, but Cole's charisma will not be tampered with. There was not a bad seat on December 2, 1955, when it was dedicated in the men's game against Virginia, and there is not a better place to watch a game today. Only in a building like Cole, where history has been routinely made, can the fan feel the echo of tradition and experience the electricity generated by buzzer beaters and a thousand slam dunks.

Cole was dedicated as the Student Activities Center, a $3.3 million project that was erected under the tutelage of Board of Regents Chair, Judge William P. Cole, Jr., and President Wilson Elkins. A year after the dedication, the building was named in honor of Cole, who served the Board of Regents for 25 years.

Although Cole has remained the same basketball hall it was built to be, there have been refinements. Scoreboards were installed that not only tell the fan what the score is, but also how loud they are cheering. A new floor design reflects a modern era of basketball. Cole's seating also grew from its original base, and now 14,500 fans can cheer for the red and white at any game.

As championships were awarded over the years, Cole got some of the very best. The 1966 and 1970 men's basketball Final Four were held here. In 1990, the first and second rounds of the eastern regionals were in Cole Field House. The NCAA wrestling championships were held here in 1960, 1972, 1978, 1987, and 1990, and the NCAA women's volleyball championship took place here in 1990.

Cole Field House is home to most of the athletic department offices, and yearly hosts thousands who visit just to see where so much basketball history has been made.

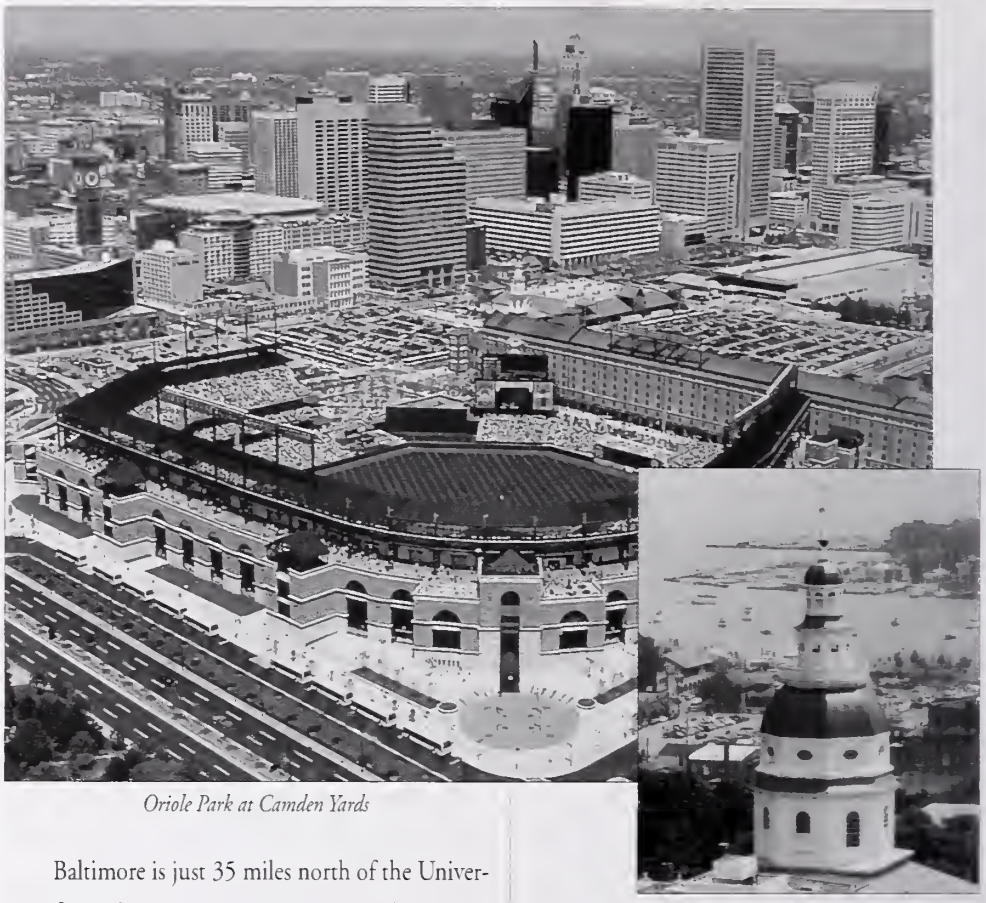
Some Place Special

Annapolis ... Baltimore ... Washington, D.C.

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland. It's all here beyond the campus.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of College Park. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a new station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttles serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

The United States Capitol



Oriole Park at Camden Yards

The Maryland Capital in Annapolis

Baltimore is just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland. Its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its national aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant, holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports. The heart of Maryland, the Chesapeake Bay, is 20 miles from campus, and the state capital, Annapolis, is 30 miles away.

Campus neighbors include such important national resources as the Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Institutions, the National Institutes of Health, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Research Center.

Washington and Baltimore can be reached easily from anywhere in the world. USAir, which is headquartered in the metropolitan area, uses Baltimore/Washington International Airport as its hub. Dulles International Airport is a hub for United Airlines. College Park is 10 minutes from the Amtrak Northeast Corridor Line and frequent train service along the East Coast.
